Out of state stations must notify the Athletic Association of the visiting team (G. Washington, FSU, Georgia Tech, Rice, Vanderbilt, Auburn, Georgia, Tulane) of their intent to broadcast. Having done this, stations should advise Jimmy Gay, Florida Sports Publicity Head, so he may assign you to a radio booth and issue tickets. Official letter from the visiting team designating the station as visiting representatives must accompany the request. If desired, spotters will be provided at the cost of the station of $10.00 a man. Arrangements for the broadcasting telephone line to the stadium must be arranged by the station with the telephone company or A. T. & T.

RAY GRAVES

Director of Athletics and Head Football Coach

Those who have followed Ray Graves through his career in football knew it was inevitable that he would be summoned as head coach of a major college team. They applauded President J. Wayne Reitz for his choice of Graves as the man to head not only the fortunes of the Fighting Gators on the gridiron but the progressive program underway in all athletics at the University. The call to Florida came in January, 1960.

He came well qualified for the work. Graves was a star player (a center) in high school, college and in professional football. He claimed the respect and admiration of his fellow players by being named captain of every team from high school to professional ranks on which he played at least one year.

Graves was a successful assistant coach. He has the unusual record of having seen 13 players who were directly in his charge become All Americans. One of these was at Tennessee and 12 were at Georgia Tech.

His bowl record as a player and coach is probably unmatched by anyone in the country over a comparable period of time. As a player at the University of Tennessee in 1939, 1940 and 1941, he took part in the Orange, Sugar and Rose Bowl games. As a coach at Tennessee and Georgia Tech, he helped guide teams that played in the Orange Bowl twice, Sugar Bowl three times, Gator Bowl twice, and the Cotton and Rose Bowl once each.

Born in Knoxville, Tenn. on December 31, 1918, Ray Graves was graduated from Knoxville Central High in 1937. After a year at Tennessee Wesleyan Junior College, he entered the University of Tennessee and played basketball and football with the Vols. He was captain of the Vols' 1941 football team.

After receiving his AB degree in 1942, he played with the Philadelphia Eagles professional football team. Following two years of professional ball (the second year of which he was team captain), Graves returned to Tennessee in 1944 for a two-year stay as line coach. He rejoined the Eagles as a coach and scout in 1946 and then was appointed as an assistant coach to Bobby Dodd at Georgia Tech.

From the day he joined the Georgia Tech staff in 1947, Graves' position continued to grow in importance. In two platoon days of collegiate football, he was defensive coach. Dodd early recognized his promising ability in other areas and steadily increased his duties to the point where he was in charge of both the offense and defense of the mighty Yellow Jackets. Bobby Dodd paid him the ultimate compliment available to an assistant by naming him "Assistant Head Coach" in 1957.

The Man

University of Florida President J. Wayne Reitz, summed up the feeling of many about Ray Graves, when he said on announcing his appointment: "We have found him (Graves) to be a person of fine character and a man interested in furthering the objectives of the University as a whole."

Dr. Reitz moved carefully in selecting a new athletic director and football coach. There is little doubt then that he was referring in part to Ray's community standing in Atlanta. There, for example, he was a member of the Board of Stewards of the First Methodist Church, and for several years was president of his Sunday school Class.

He is a man who loves the out-of-doors. Happiest perhaps directing strategy of his team on the football field, he nevertheless finds the fish a genial adversary. He's quick to accept a challenge to a tennis match, and won't duck a rough and tumble pickup game of basketball.

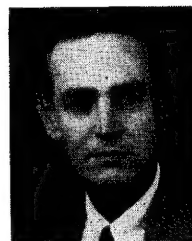

Ray married the former Opal Richardson of Tazewell, Tenn. on November 3, 1942, and they are the parents of three lovely daughters, Rebecca Ann, 16, Katherine Gibbs, 12, and Elizabeth Green, 9.

PERCY BEARD

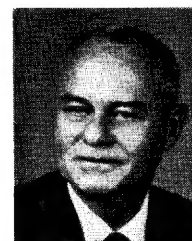

Assistant Director of Athletics

Percy Beard again resumes the post of Assistant Athletic Director, a post he held from 1940 to 1945. He is a native Kentuckian and has always been interested in sports. Before entering Auburn he had seen only one organized athletic event. Once in college, however, Beard became interested in track and was to excel at Auburn. In his final two years at Auburn, the 6-4, 170 pounder lost only two dual meet races. His specialty was the hurdles and he became one of one of Auburn's greatest. In 1934 Beard held world records for the 110-meter high hurdles, 120-yard high hurdles, the 70-yard indoor, the 60-yard indoor and the 65-meter indoor high hurdles. He has been track coach at Florida since 1936, during which time his squads have compiled a record that rates with the best in the country. Coach Beard was selected to be one of the coaches of the United States team in the Pan-American Games and is a member of the Olympic Track and Field Committee.

HOBART HOOSER

Administrative Assistant Athletic Director

Hobart (Hobe) Hooser was born at Haley, Tenn., and was graduated from the University of Tennessee with a Bachelor of Science degree in Education in 1928. He earned a Master of Arts degree from Peabody in 1942. As a player with the Vols (1925-7), the team won 22, lost 2 and tied 2. He was head coach at Johnson City for two years, then guided Lake City for eleven years, his teams winning 73, losing 30 and tying 7. He returned to Tennessee as line coach under John Barnhill in 1942. After three years in the Navy, Hooser became football line coach and head track coach at Arkansas for four years. The Razorbacks were conference champions and tied LSU in the Cotton Bowl that first season (1946). He joined the Florida staff in 1950, assisting Bob Woodruff as defensive line coach, before moving up to his present post under Ray Graves. He is married to the former Gertrude Morgan of Richard City, Tenn.

COACH JOHN DONALDSON

John Donaldson was born at Jesup, Georgia, and did his undergraduate work at the University of Georgia, graduating with a degree in physical education in 1949. At Georgia, he was named the Southeastern Conference's most valuable freshman as a right halfback and was second in SEC scoring while a member of Georgia's last undefeated football team (1946). Donaldson also played a year of service ball (1944) with the Jacksonville Naval Air Station team and went on to become a teammate of former Florida assistant coach, Hank Foldberg, with the old Chicago Hornets. Before joining the University of Florida staff in 1960, Donaldson was football coach at Wayne County High, Jesup, Ga., where in his eight year tenure his teams ran up a record of 63 wins, 15 losses and two ties. His team won two Georgia State Class AA championships and compiled an enviable 22 victories and seven losses record against larger Class AA schools. Coach and Mrs. Donaldson (Ann) have no children.

COACH JIMMY DUNN

A native of Tampa, Jimmy Dunn begins his first year as a college assistant on Ray Graves staff this fall. At 140 pounds, Dunn was known as the smallest starting quarterback on a major college team in the nation during his career here at the university. Top performances became standard procedure for Jimmy as a Fighting Gator. Some of those high points were his leading the Gators to a 20 to 0 win over Auburn in 1956 as a sophomore; leading the Gators into the Gator Bowl against Mississippi in 1958, a season when he personally tallied 26 points (high for the team), and leading the Gators over highly touted UCLA; and personally leading the Gators to a hard fought 7-6 win over Georgia with a 76-yard touchdown run. Jimmy became a student assistant coach last season before assuming full assistant rating this fall. Coach and Mrs. Dunn (Elanor) have a daughter, Melanie, aged 8 months.

COACH JOHN EIBNER

John Eibner joined the Gator staff in 1950. He is a graduate of the University of Kentucky, majoring in history and political science. In 1939 and 1940 he won honors as an All Southeastern Conference tackle and also captained the Wildcats in his senior year. In 1941 and 1942, he played professional football for the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League. His coach was the much heralded Earle "Greasy" Neale. His pro career was cut short when he enlisted in the United States Navy. Here he served three years which included sea duty in the South Pacific and Far East as a Gunnery Officer. After discharge from the Navy, Eibner rejoined the Eagles in 1946. In 1947 he coached all sports at Prestonsburg, Ky., then joined forces with Andy Gustafson as a line coach when Gustafson was named to the Miami head coaching position. Since 1950, Eibner has been an assistant coach at Florida and also holds the title of head scout. He assists Col. Yon in the Gator Boosters office during the summer months. His hobbies include fishing, golf and collecting antiques. He is married to the former Katie Oakley of Mt. Sterling, Ky.

COACH GENE ELLENSON

Gene Ellenson comes to the University of Florida this year from the University of Miami where he served as defensive line coach. At Miami, the high point of his tenure, from 1952 to 1958, came in 1956 when the Hurricanes were first in the nation on defense. Born in Chippewa, Wisconsin, the 38-year-old Ellenson is a graduate of the University of Georgia where he was a standout tackle. He played on the Bulldog teams that went to the Orange Bowl in 1942 and the Rose Bowl in 1943. Ellenson went on to play professional football before becoming an assistant coach at his alma mater, Miami Senior High School, where he won All-State honor. During World War II, Ellenson was a commissioned officer and was decorated with the Silver Star, Bronze Star, and Purple Heart while participating in four major battle campaigns, including the Battle of the Bulge. Coach and Mrs. Ellenson (Jeanne) have two children, Donna, eight, and Mark, 3.

COACH JACK GREEN

Jack Green began his college playing career by making the Tulane varsity team as a freshman in 1942. He was an All-State high schooler. The 35-year old Green moved to West Point following his freshman season at Tulane and won All-American selection as a guard on the great Army teams of 1944 and 1945. He captained the Cadets during his senior year. Following his playing career, he remained as an assistant to Col. Earl Blaik at the Military Academy. While in service, Green rose to the rank of Captain. He was mentioned as a possible successor to the Colonel when he retired as head coach at Army in 1958. Green was a teammate of former Florida end coach, Hank Foldberg, at Army in 1955, with both making All-American honors. Green comes to Florida this year after serving as line coach at Tulane since 1954. Coach and Mrs. Green (Jean) have two sons and a daughter.

COACH JOHN MAUER

John Mauer was born in Aurora, Ill., and is a graduate of the University of Illinois. Receiving a physical education degree in 1926, he also won the Big Ten Medal for scholarship and athletics. For the Illini he played football (a teammate of Red Grange), and basketball. He captained the 1925 basketball team and was All-Big Ten forward the next season. He served one year as coach at Batavia High before becoming head basketball and assistant football coach at Kentucky from 1927-30. His Wildcat basketball teams won 40 and lost 14. The next eight years found him as head basketball coach and football end coach at Miami (Ohio) University. He became head basketball and assistant football coach at Tennessee in 1938. Serving until 1947, his basketball Vols won 128 games and lost 42, while the football team went twice each to the Rose, Orange and Sugar Bowls. During that period the basketball team won SEC championship in 1941 and 1943, and were tournament finalists in 1939 and 1945. Again Mauer was basketball coach and assistant football coach, this time for West Point from 1947 until 1951 when he joined the Florida Gators as head basketball coach and football assistant. He retired as basketball coach in 1959 and will continue under Ray Graves as defensive end coach. Coach and Mrs. Mauer (Grace) have two sons—Jack, a graduate of West Point, and Ronnie, a graduate of Florida.

COACH JIM POWELL

Jim Powell joined the Florida coaching staff as a freshman coach in 1958 and moved up to offensive end coach under new head coach Ray Graves. A former All-American and All-Southeastern Conference end at the University of Tennessee, he came to Florida from Miami Edison High School, where he coached the Red Raiders to an undefeated season and the state championship in 1957. Powell enrolled at Tennessee in 1942 and played on the varsity as a freshman. From 1943 to 1946 he served in the Air Force as a B-25 pilot and found time to play service ball for Amarillo and Maxwell Field Air Bases. He returned to Tennessee and played football from 1946 through 1948, serving as captain in his senior year. He led the nation in pass receiving in 1948 and still holds the record (10) for the number of individual pass receptions in one game. His first coaching job was in 1949 at Sullivan High School, Kingsport, Tenn., and in 1950 he joined the staff of his former high school coach Ed Parnell, as end coach at Edison. He was named head coach at Edison in 1956. Powell is married and has one daughter, Jane, aged 15.

COACH PEPPER RODGERS

Franklin C. (Pepper) Rodgers, a native of Atlanta, joined the University of Florida staff this year after two highly successful seasons at the Air Force Academy. The 29-year-old backfield coach was the star quarterback at Georgia Tech during his varsity career, 1951 to 1953. During this time the personable Rodgers led the Yellow Jackets to win in the Orange Bowl (1952) and Sugar Bowl (1953 and 1954). He was selected the game's Most Valuable Player in the 1954 Sugar Bowl. At Tech, he compiled a record of 60 per cent completions in one year, kicked 19 consecutive extra points, and kicked five field goals in one year. In two Sugar Bowl games, Rodgers threw four touchdown passes (three in one game) and kicked two field goals. He also has the distinction of kicking a field goal in every bowl game he has participated in as a player. His Air Force Academy team went to the Cotton Bowl. Rodgers spent four years as a pilot in the Air Force during which time he was a player coach with Hamilton (Calif.) Air Force Base for two years. Hamilton went to service bowls both those years. Coach and Mrs. Rodgers (Judy) have three children, Ricky 6, Terri 5 and Kyle 2.

COACH EARL SCARBOROUGH

A native of Jacksonville, Coach Scarborough is a graduate of Andrew Jackson High School where he played football, basketball, baseball and ran track. He then attended the University of Florida and as a member of the Gator's football team played halfback, quarterback and wingback on teams from 1944 through 1947. During this time he earned a bachelor's degree in education, graduating with the Class of '48. Scarborough then took over the duties of athletic director and head coach at Umatilla High School, which posts he held for seven years. He returned to the University of Florida to study for a master's degree in physical education which he received in 1956. During the period of his graduate studies, Scarborough served as a member of the Florida football staff as a graduate assistant. He was named to full time staff member in 1957 and is linebacker coach under new head coach Ray Graves. High School before entering the Navy for a four-year tour of duty. Coach Fuller earned a Master of Education degree from the University of North Carolina before joining the University of Florida staff in September, 1946. In addition to serving as freshman football coach, a position he held in 1958 before serving as assistant backfield coach last year, he is also head baseball coach. His 1952, 1956 and 1960 baseball teams represented the Southeastern Conference in the NCAA District III tournaments. COLONIALS OUTLOOK

Following spring practice the new football coach, Bill Elias and his staff were very high on the team's chances for the next season. The Colonials lost 11 lettermen, but will have 17 returning lettermen to mold a new team for 1960. Elias, is expecting some of his sophomores to develop fast enough to really be a big help to the team.

The quarterbacks are excellent, with Charlie Packan, and Frank Pazzaglia looking great in spring practice along with Bill Hardy. This trio gives the team good throwers, who can be called on to run the ball if needed. They also give the team a fine kicking game. George Washington's second strongest point appears to be the tackles. Coach Elias feels his halfbacks are not great, but will get the job done. John Wilt, his fullback, can play on any college team in the country.

The Colonial's weakness seems to be the ends and the guards. Elias will need plenty of pass catching ends to make his new offensive ideas click. He has a pair of green sophomore guards running with the first unit. The coaching staff decided to switch Bob Barbieri from his guard spot to first string center and a linebacker.

SEMINOLE OUTLOOK

There is a time-worn adage in football that "you can't win with sophomores." Florida State's 1960 roster lists 44 sophomores (out of 68 players), but new Head Coach Bill Peterson refuses to take anything but an optimistic stand.

"We had the finest spring practice I have ever gone through," says Peterson. "We achieved our goal in building morale, installing a new offense, and getting to know our personnel."

Peterson recognizes the Seminoles face one of the greatest schedule challenges in Florida State's 14 years of football. The independent Seminoles in 1960 meet Richmond, Florida, Wake Forest, The Citadel, Mississippi Southern, William & Mary, Kentucky, Miami (Fla.), Houston, and Auburn.

Besides the unveiling of many new faces this fall, the Seminoles will have a new offense. It is an attack that combines features of the winged T and professional-type maneuvers. "We can run a play six or seven different ways. It is flexible enough so we can adapt ourselves to various situations." Seventeen lettermen return, 16 from FSU's injury-troubled 1959 team that won four games and lost six. Halfback Carl Meyer, a 1958 letterman, is back after a year's absence.

Principal losses among 11 departed lettermen are halfback Fred Pickard, FSU's all-time leading rusher; quarterback Joe Majors, who set nine individual passing records; three-time All-Florida guard Al Ulmer, and all-state tackle John Spivey.

Leading returnees are ends Tony Romeo, Jim Daniel, and Fred Grimes; tackle Don Donatelli, guard Steve Klesius (a tackle last season), center Jack Hardy, and halfback Bud Whitehead.

These and other veterans are one key to Seminole plans. The mate to that key rests with sophomores up from last year's undefeated freshman team. Seminole coaches are reserving opinion on them until the returns are in this fall.

YELLOW JACKET OUTLOOK

Ends are probably weaker with outstanding men like Rudolph and Murphy gone. Moving of Anderson, a natural end, back to this position will help. He and Burch should be top grade starters but lacking in proven depth.

On paper at least Tech's tackles should be strongest they have been in years. Nutting has potential to be as good as nation's best. Shaw almost as strong when at his best. Reserves capable and some of young ones have promise of future brilliance.

Probably weaker guards than 1959 unless some of young players come faster than expected. Ericksen and Nicholl capable starters, subs yet to prove talent.

All-America Center Max Baughan gone. Have promising youngsters coming up, though, and McGaughey is dependable.

Quarterbacks will be stronger if Sophomores Gann and MacKenzie come through as hoped. Returnee Tibbetts probable starter but others expected to play lots.

Halfbacks are certainly no weaker with only two of 1959's top four gone and could be stronger if young players develop. Sophomore Winingder could be a great one. Williamson all-around dependable and 1959 reserve Nail coming strong.

Fullback will miss Anderson (moved to end) but should be at least equal to 1959 with addition of transfer Coker and added experience by Reid and Smith. Larry Lafkowitz (Jr.) and Mike McNames (Soph) not far behind top three and could push into consideration by late September.

Except for loss of Baughan, and reserve strength at ends, should be at least as strong as 1959 with possibility of being better. This squad believes in itself, is young and tough. Will be colorful. Might surprise.

OWL (RICE) OUTLOOK

As so often is the case in football with a "T" offense, the quarterback post perhaps is the biggest key as to what will develop for Rice football for next fall, the first season under the new name as Rice University. Alvin Hartman, a 2-letter senior but never a regular, is the only candidate there with varsity experience. He has the size at 6-4, 207 and if he can develop more quickness, plus confidence as the No. 1 man, he can get the job done quite adequately. Sophs Billy Cox and Randall Kerbow have good potential but lack experience. General opinion of Owl observers in the spring is that QB is the No. 1 problem via lack of experience and depth.

Another major concern is lack of experience and proven depth at the tackles where Robert Johnston is the only letterman who played tackle last fall and due to play that position this fall. There is an adequate number of candidates, and in general they have good size, but much thought and effort will go into having at least 4 men ready for tough game duty who have the size, speed and quickness.

COMMODORE OUTLOOK

Coach Art Guepe searched a snow-shortened spring football practice for prospects to replace 20 lettermen lost from the 1959 Vanderbilt team, which tied Auburn for 5th place in the rugged Southeastern Conference. At the close he had seen progress enough to indicate the Commodores will hold their own in competition against these fine teams.

Toughest man to replace is the "iron" halfback Tom Moore, who averaged 49 minutes per game (51:07 in SEC games) for three years. Tom rated the all-SEC team two seasons, and last year he was honored by the Birmingham Touchdown Club as the league's Most Valuable Back. Tom averaged 4.8 yards per carry for his career. The 676 he gained in '59 set a modern Vanderbilt record. He was also a great pass receiver, and the SEC's finest defensive player. Since no one will exactly replace Tom Moore, Coach Guepe has altered both his varied T offense and his Vandy defense in hope of accommodating for the loss.

Along with Moore, the entire right side of the line is gone: End "Rooster" Akin, an ace receiver; tackle Larry Wagner, 2nd team all-SEC; and the men who alternated at guard, Joe Bates and Travis Hughes. Also, two starters who were lost during the season via injuries, LG Dunlap Hurst and LHB Mack Rolfe, are finished. Other lettermen graduating who had been starters at one time or another include Ends Rayford Hilley and Ron Miller, QB Jim McKee and HB Dillon Johnston.

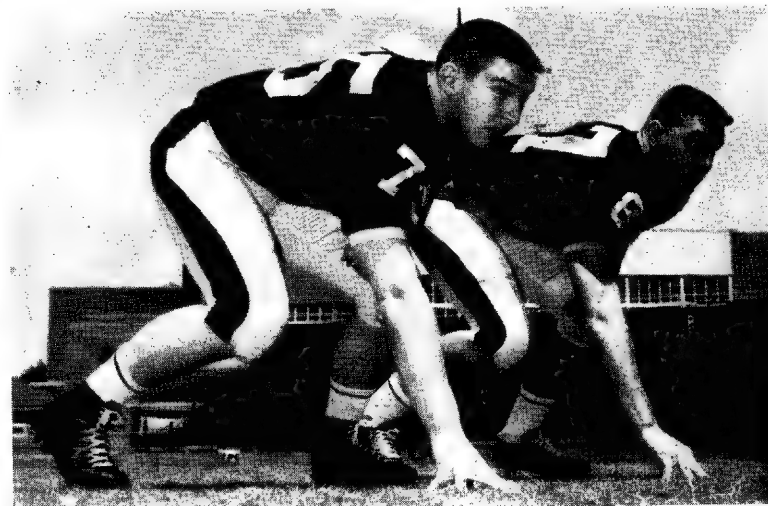

The 17 lettermen on hand include 10 linemen and 7 backs, spread thin at all positions except tackle, where there are 5, and fullback, which has three.

TIGER OUTLOOK

If the number of returning lettermen is any criteria of Louisiana State University's football strength, the 1960 Tigers may be about half as strong as they were a year ago.

The Bayou Bengals took the field in 1959 with 30 battle-tested returnees from a national championship team. In sharp contrast the Tigers of this season enter the arena with only 15 lettermen available.

These figures indicate a definite lack of experienced depth, yet certain intangibles and key members of the varsity could keep the Fighting Tigers snarling on the heels of Southeastern Conference leaders.

After a successful two year period that netted 20 victories in 22 games, Coach Paul Dietzel will look toward a youthful contingent, eager and optimistic, to find replacements for 20 departed regulars, including 7 starters and Heisman Trophy winner Billy Cannon.

In addition to the obvious loss of numbers and the team's leading ground gainer and scorer, Dietzel has serious gaps to fill at end, tackle, guard, center and quarterback.

An outstanding junior, 210-pound Roy Winston, could ease the situation at guard. And slim senior Darryl "Slingshot" Jenkins, previously a defensive specialist, could help solve a problem at quarterback with a top performance. Junior ball carriers, 190-pound halfback Wendell Harris, and 215-pound fullback Earl Gros, could team up to approximate Cannon's offensive efforts.

Four seniors, starters in 1959—end Mickey Mangham, tackle "Bo" Strange, guard Ed McCreedy and fullback Donnie Daye, are first line returnees who should steady the '60 team.

TIGER OUTLOOK

Auburn will start the 1960 season with the greenest squad in recent Tiger history, but with the ambition and desire which the 1957 National Championship team had.

"We are deeply concerned over a lack of depth at guard, center, halfback and quarterback," Head Coach Ralph Jordan said after spring practice. "And we are happy about the play of our tackles and fullbacks, which now look like our most solid positions."

More sophs will move into the first two Tiger units this fall than have been that high in many a year under Jordan. The Tiger coach hopes, however, that the young blood will infuse the '60 team with the kind of spirit that made the 1957 team so great.

"On the basis of spring drills," he says, "We'd have to say this team will have more desire and be willing to scrap harder than any bunch has since 1957. We will make mistakes with a young lineup, but our boys are hustling and hitting and look as if they intend to battle for 60 minutes each game."

Gone are 13 lettermen, including all-American linemen Jackie Burkett and Zeke Smith and both starting ends.

All-America tackle Ken Rice returns along with SEC Soph of the Year in quarterback Bobby Hunt. Fullback Ed Dyas, up to 205 pounds for his senior year, is back and looks like he's in for a banner year.

BULLDOG OUTLOOK

Georgia's defending SEC football champions do not have the solid two-team strength that enabled them to sweep to a 7-0-0 conference record last year, but they do boast a No. 1 backfield unit many experts rate the most explosive in Dixie.

RIGHTHALF BOBBY WALDEN—(Right)

This great quartet is led by Captain Francis Tarkenton, all-SEC first team T-QB last year (both AF and UPI), who set a conference passing percentage record of 60.8 (minimum of 100 attempts) with 62x102 last year.

The left half is Flying Fred Brown, considered the best ball-carrier in the league, also a terrific receiver and defensive back. The right half is Bobby Walden, holder of the all-time SEC punting average record (45.3 in 1958), also a speedy pass-receiver and a gifted passer, also a very dangerous runner.

At fullback is Bill Godfrey, stocky 185-pound bundle of dynamite, who got the Bulldogs off to a winning start with a 40-yard TD run against Alabama last year in the opening game.

SEC coaches in recent poll conducted by the Birmingham News, voted four Bulldogs best in the league in their specialties:

Tarkenton, best passer; Brown, best runner; Walden, best punter; and Pat Dye, all-America guard last year, best defensive lineman.

If they had voted a best-place-kicker award, it's likely Georgia's Durwood Pennington would have won it. Last year, as a soph, he set a conference percentage record for PATs (minimum of 20 kicks) with 26x28 for 92.9.

GREEN WAVE OUTLOOK

Tabbed as the last place team in the SEC this year in a pre-season poll, Tulane's Green Wave could surprise.

Not that Andy Pilney has any illusions of the Greenies being a top title contender, but that the veteran Wave mentor feels his club could be rugged with a few breaks.

Offensively, Tulane will be better. Backfield headed by quarterback Phil Nugent may be top grade, for Nugent can throw and plot an offense. Halfbacks Tommy Mason and Terry Terrebonne can run, and fullback Bill Ary may be a workhorse up the middle.

Reserves are thin, as usual, but for three quarters front-liners may brew real trouble . . . and with a few breaks could make the experts look foolish.

Loaded with sophomores, the Wave will lean a lot on inexperienced players. Some new faces to watch are ends Clarence Moen and Joe Lasseigne; tackles Ed Reynolds, Ernest Colquette, Bill Kellum; guards Glenn Holcombe, Butch Crenshaw, Larry Culp, Grant Lyons; center Ron Thornton; and in the backfield Ted Miller, Jack Dominique and Ron Melton at qb; Sam Camp, Adrian Colon and Durham Barnes at halves, and Gordon Rush at full.

Veterans back in the line Cameron Gamble, Pat McLean and Bill Roach at end, Bernard Darre and Joe LeSage at tackle, Gus Gonzales and Dave Michiels at guards, and Larry Thompson and John Chaisson (if injury heals) at center.

Gonzales was on the All-Soph team last fall. Darre, Mason and Terrebonne join Gus as All-SEC prospects.

HURRICANE OUTLOOK

There is a pause of any over-enthusiastic predictions for the football season coming up at University of Miami.

The Hurricanes of 1960 face their greatest challenge in 35 years. They meet national champions Syracuse, Notre Dame, Air Force Academy, Pittsburgh, Auburn, Florida, North Carolina, South Carolina, Boston College and Florida State.

It's the most difficult slate in the history of the school.

And the Hurricanes of 1960 must tackle this schedule with a team which will be minus its great all-American quarterback Fran Curci . . . without its No. 1 left halfback of last fall, Bob Rosbaugh . . . and without its two centers of 1959. All have gone by graduation route, leaving the Hurricanes woefully inexperienced at these positions.

Filling an All-America's place is always tough. For Coach Andy Gustafson it's even tougher since no quarterback on the 1960 squad has had any real varsity experience. The '60 quarterback job seems likely to fall on the shoulders of two newcomers—Junior College transfer Bobby Weaver, a talented passer, and sophomore Eddie Johns, a 194 pounder who has running ability.

James Vollenweider, ace right halfback of 1959, has been moved over to fill the left half post left vacant by the graduation of Rosbaugh. Besides hard hitting Vollenweider, the left half post has home grown sophomore Ted Saussele, who shows promise of developing into a rugged threat—plus defensive specialist Larry DiGiammarino, who starred as a pass interceptor in 1958 but sat out most of last year due to injuries, and Mike Harrison, who played considerable defense last fall.

Fullbacking looks solid where Frank Bouffard, the team's leading ground gainer of 1959, returns, along with Stan Markowski and Doug Davis. The latter pair may have to break ranks to make room for sophomore Bobby Green.

FERGIE FERGUSON AWARD

The Forest K. (Fergie) Ferguson Award is given in memory of one of Florida's finest athletes, one of the great all-time ends to wear the uniform of the Fighting Gators. The Award is made annually in the form of a beautiful trophy, which remains in the permanent possession of the University of Florida, and is given to the football player selected as the Gators' most valuable senior each year. The winning player is announced at the annual spring banquet, and he is then invited to return to the campus to receive the award at the following Homecoming.

First to win the award was Malcolm Hammack, outstanding fullback on the 1954 eleven.

Others were Center Steve DeLaTorre of the 1955 squad, and Larry Wesley, tackle on the 1956 team, Jim Rountree. 1957 halfback, and Jimmy Dunn, 1958 quarterback. Recipient of the 1960 award is Asa Cox, senior guard last year. The presentation will be made at Homecoming, Nov. 12, when the Gators play Tulane.

Idea for the Award was conceived by John Piombo, teammate and friend of Ferguson, and Dick Stratton, former Florida athlete and admirer of Ferguson. These two Jacksonville residents donated the original Ferguson trophy, which is displayed at all times in the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics trophy case.

About Fergie Ferguson

Fergie came to Florida in the fall of 1938 after having been a star end for the Stuart (Fla.) High School. He became a starting end for the Gators as a sophomore, and from that time wrote several records into the books. He caught 43 passes in the 1939-40-41 seasons, a career record that stands today. His record for the most yards gained on passes caught—668 for 3 seasons—still stands, and a record for the longest TD pass caught, 74 yards against Miami in 1941 remained on the books until 1954. Fergie was also a track and boxing star, and his javelin throw of 203 feet, 6½ inches, which won him a National AAU championship in 1942, is still the best throw ever made by a Florida athlete.

Fergie became a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army, and was severely wounded in the Normandy landing of 1944. He so distinguished himself that he was awarded the nation's second highest medal for gallantry in action. He died of war wounds ten years after the landing.

FLORIDA HOMECOMING

All year long the people of Florida talk about Homecoming at the University of Florida. Homecoming means two days of continuous activity, high lighted by the double-feature attractions—Friday night's Gator Growl and the Saturday afternoon football game. Both draw capacity crowds of 44,000.

The game this year is with a fellow member of the Southeastern Conference, Tulane, November 12.

Among other outstanding events are a parade of giant proportions, banquets, swim shows, alumni reunions, fraternity and sorority doings, and a Legislative Barbecue.

Back in 1906 the students decided to stage a "Dad's Day." Homecoming was the natural outgrowth of "Dad's Day" and in late years it has become almost traditional for each one to surpass the last one.

Gator Growl, an all-student variety extravaganza that draws a packed house to Florida Field Stadium on the eve of the football game, came into the picture back in 1924. About 7,000 Dads and Grads gathered in the old gymnasium the night before the game to drum up the necessary enthusiasm to help the Gators defeat Drake University the next day, 10 to 0.

From that spontaneous gathering in 1924 has grown what is very likely the largest, most colorful and noisiest pep rally on the college sports scene today. A student committee of Florida Blue Key works a year ahead to set the theme. Fraternities and sororities plan their parts months in advance and spend months preparing interior and exterior house decorations, parade floats and skits for Gator Growl. No admission is charged for Gator Growl or other sidelights.

Almost everyone who comes to a Florida Homecoming finds himself torn between more desires than a kid at Coney Island. There is something going on every minute and all too often, for the visitors, colorful events overlap to make the choices more than a little difficult.

Sports editors and writers assigned to cover the Florida-Tulane football game on November 12 will be primarily interested in the football game, but those who want to be in on the unforgettable side-show attraction will be one of that huge, happy, fun-loving crowd of folks at Florida Field Stadium Friday night for Gator Growl, a brilliant evening's entertainment in anybody's book.

FLORIDA FIELD PRESS BOX

PRESS DECK: There are 48 seats on the front row and 47 on the back row. Each reporter has 34 inches of desk space and an adjustable, swivel chair that is bolted to the floor. Every seat has perfect vision—there are no uprights between any seat and the field and people walking along the front row are below the vision of folks on the back row. There are no windows on the press deck. A public address system operated exclusively for the press box gives all official information, including statistics on individual plays.

RADIO DECK: There are five ample-sized, acoustically tiled radio booths with glass windows that may be opened or closed, depending upon the desire of each announcer. The front row of each radio booth will seat four people very comfortably and five in a slight pinch. The back row seats three and is adapted for engineering equipment. Each radio booth may receive the press box PA announcements via headphones. There are two other booths, one for visiting coaches and one for the stadium public address system. Flanking the radio booths are large open-front decks for use by still, movie or television photographers. There are toilet facilities on the radio deck.

PHOTOGRAPHY DECK: This is a large open-front area at the very top of the press box. It has ample table space both in front of the cameraman and behind him. This deck also includes the Florida coaches booth and the stadium manager's booth.

WESTERN UNION and PHOTO DARKROOM DECK: This is the first floor of the press box and the first elevator stop coming up from ground level. The entire Western Union operation is carried out in a large room that provides every needed facility for transmitting copy. Messages are sent by pneumatic chute from the press deck to the Western Union room. This, of course, eliminates the necessity of having bulky and noisy page printers in the actual working press section. (When you have a message ready for sending, you merely hold it over your head, yell "Copy Boy" and one swoops down on it.)

This deck also includes newly added photographic darkrooms for photographers who wish to process film at the stadium and telephoto room from which they may send pictures to the papers. While the places to do this work are a part of the press box, we are unable to furnish such equipment as enlargers, wire-photo sending sets, etc. Portable units must be brought by the cameramen.

GATOR BAND

Halftime at Florida Field is the signal for some of the nation's most colorful extravaganzas, as the famed Gator Band struts onto the gridiron in rapid cadence. Thrilling depth of sound, exacting standards of drill, and the beauty of unfolding design all contribute to the brilliant pageantry.

Elected Student Officers—1960-61

David Brooker, President, West Palm Beach
 Jimmy Fairchild, Vice President, Lake Hamilton
 Florence Alexander, Secretary, St. Petersburg
 Tom Stidham, Publicity Manager, Lake Placid

Band personnel includes a total of some 145 people: 104 musicians in the marching "square" of the band; the Gatoettes, a baton twirling corps of 16; 3 flag bearers; a bass drum crew of 3; and some 20 field assistants and alternates.

The Bass Drum with the Biggest Boom in Dixie

The Gator Band giant exhibition bass drum is one of the largest drums in the country. At the time it was made, a writer for the Chicago Sun-Times quoted its manufacturer as saying that it is "The world's largest bass drum that will boom properly." The drum is 6 feet in diameter and 25½ inches in width.

The Gator Band performs for the crowd at the Florida-Florida State game, in Gainesville, last November 22.

"GATORS"

(From THE FLORIDA TIMES-UNION (Jacksonville), Thursday, August 19, 1948.)

"MILLER RECALLS CHRISTENING OF UF TEAMS AS 'ALLIGATORS'

"A Jacksonville lawyer 'christened' the University of Florida's football team 41 years ago when he gave a pennant-designing firm in Charlottesville, Va., the suggestion of 'The Alligators.'

"Austin Miller, who has practiced law here since shortly after his graduation from the University of Virginia in 1910, yesterday recalled the circumstances surrounding the choice of a name for Florida University's athletic teams. It happened in the fall of 1907, a year after the University at Gainesville had fielded its first team.

"Miller, a native of Gainesville, was enrolled in the University of Virginia at the time and was visited by his father, Phillip Miller, a Gainesville merchant. The elder Miller, who died nine years ago, then owned and operated a combination drug store and stationery store in Gainesville, a popular rendezvous for university students.

"While in Charlottesville the father decided to order some pennants and banners for the University of Florida from the Michie Company, which was engaged in the manufacture of such items. The Millers went to the firm, where they were shown samples of pennants which featured the Yale bulldog, the Princeton tiger and other school emblems. When the manager asked for Florida's emblem, the Millers realized the new school had none.

"Austin Miller said the name 'Alligators' occurred to him as a suitable emblem, both because the Michie manager said no other school had adopted it and because the alligator was native to this state. 'I had no idea it would stick, or even be popular with the student body,' Miller said. 'We wanted to get the Michie firm started on the pennants as quickly as possible, though, so they would be available in time for the opening of the 1908 school term.'

"The Michie manager complicated the 'christening' when he told young Miller he'd never seen an alligator and didn't believe he could design one. The law student volunteered to find a suitable picture of a 'gator. After much search, he said, he located a picture of one in the library of the University of Virginia.

"The first appearance of the alligator emblem, Miller recalled, was in his father's Gainesville store in 1908. The Michie firm had supplied 'Miller's' with blue banners measuring six by three feet, showing a large orange alligator, and also with several different types of smaller banners and pennants. Some of them showed the alligator lying down, some rampant, while others included only the alligator's head.

"With the first display of the new banners and pennants in Gainesville, the name 'Alligators' to describe the football team 'caught on' Miller recalled and, now contracted to 'Gator.'

GATOR FOOTBALL BOOSTERS, Inc.

Col. Everett M. Yon (U.S.A., Ret.), Director of Public Relations for the Athletic Association, is also director of Gator Football Boosters, Inc., an organization designed to promote University of Florida intercollegiate athletics through the alumni and friends of the University.

The Boosters handle such important duties as distributing films of Gator games, arranging public appearances and supplying ticket information to members of the organization.

Born in Blountstown, Fla., Col. Yon has devoted most of his life to University of Florida athletics. He was a first-string guard on the Gator football teams of 1914 and 1915 and a regular outfielder on the 1915 and 1916 baseball teams. He was captain-elect of the 1917 baseball team, but went into the Army.

In 1923-24, the Colonel was line coach at Florida under Gen. James A. Van Fleet. He served as director of athletics from 1926 through 1929.

Soon after the outbreak of World War II, he was promoted to Colonel and assumed command of the 25th Infantry at Fort Huachuca, Ariz. He accompanied this regiment to Guadalcanal early in 1944 and later saw action on Bougainville.

He commanded the 63rd Infantry of the Sixth Division during the invasion of the Philippine Islands.

Col. and Mrs. Yon are parents of two sons. The elder son, Ev., Jr., is now with the Army in Germany after graduating from West Point in 1957. The younger son, Frank, a 1959 graduate of the University of Florida, is also in the regular Army.
